SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(©, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 17

JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 4:12-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 1:16-20; Luke 5:1-11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Chooses His Disciples.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching and Healing.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Call of the First Disciples.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus enters upon his mission.

1. The King His Own Herald (vv. 12-17).

The reason for (v. 12). The news of the imprisonment of John the Baptist caused Jesus to forsake Judea and go into Galilee. The fate of John he accepted as foreshadowing his own. Because of this, he withdrew from the metropolis and went to the remote regions where his work would attract less attention. When the people wilfully reject the truth and attempt to do violence to the messenger, he should turn from them unless specially directed otherwise.

2. To whom the proclamation is made (vv. 13-16). The people in Capernaum. This was done in fulfillment of a prophecy in Isaiah 9:1, 2. These people did not enjoy such privileges as those around Jerusalem. This was one of the darkest and most corrupt of the provinces, and now it is getting the light first. This foreshadowed the present age when the grace of God would reach out to the Gentiles. But this is just like the Lord. He did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. It should be our business, like the Master, to go to the most benighted souls with the message of light and life.

3. His message (v. 17). "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This is the same kingdom which John the Baptist and the Old Testament prophets proclaimed. It means the Messianic earth rule of Jesus Christ. This is not our message, for ours is the gospel of the grace of God through faith in the finished work of Christ. We should call upon men to repent and believe the gospel of Christ's death for their sins and resurrection for justification. The time is coming when heralds will again announce the coming of the kingdom, and the King himself will come forth from the heavens to establish his mediatorial kingdom. For this we pray when we intelligently say, "Thy kingdom come."

II. The King Summons Servants to His Side (vv. 8-22).

1. His command of authority (v. 19). He did not use arguments, but issued the mandate. The King's voice is authoritative. To command is the King's prerogative, not to argue or entreat.

2. The station of the servants called (vv. 18, 21). They were men of lowly birth—fishermen. God chooses the foolish things of this world to put to shame the mighty, that no flesh might boast before him (1 Cor. 1:26).

3. They were called to definite service (v. 19). "I will make you fishers of men." He had previously called them to be disciples (John 1:36-42). He now called them to service. This call, then, was not the gospel call to sinners, which is always "Believe on me," but the call to service, of those who had already heeded the call to discipleship. The qualities which made them good fishermen—patience, bravery to face the storm and the night, the perseverance which toiled all night though no fish were caught, would make them good fishers of men.

4. Their prompt obedience (vv. 20, 22). They gave up their business and homes, not even inquiring where their salary was to come from. They put their trust in him who called, believing that he was able to supply their needs.

III. The King's Triumphant Progress (vv. 23-25).

He went the whole rounds of Galilee teaching the Scriptures, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of diseases. He did a threefold work:

1. Teaching the Scriptures in the synagogues (v. 23). The revelation of God needed to be explained. This is what he was doing at Nazareth (Luke 4:16-22).

2. Preaching the glad tidings of the kingdom (v. 23). The King who was present and was heralding his own mission was ready to establish his kingdom if they would have been willing to receive him.

3. Healing all manner of diseases (v. 23). There was no form of disease which he could not cure.

Learn the Lesson. Therefore, let us be patient, patient; and let God our Father teach us his own lesson his own way. Let us try to learn it well and quickly; but do not let us fancy that he will ring the school bell and send us to play before our lesson is learnt.—Charles Kingsley.

Mischief Makers. I have heard it said that spies and talebearers have done more mischief in this world than the poisoned bowl or the assassin's dagger.—Schiller.

From present appearances it would seem that a newspaper man will be our next president.

However, cheaper coal is what the domestic consumer would consider a preferred shipment.

The modern complexion is face evidence that America is getting ahead in the matter of dyes.

One-piece bathing suits would not be so bad if the makers were more generous with the color.

CONSIDERABLE POINT.

"Officer," inquired the testy judge, "what's all that rumpus in the jury-room?"
"Y'r honor, the foreman says they're arguing a valuable point."
"Oh, tell them that they have my approbation, but ask them to be a little more quiet about it."
"Y'r honor," replied the courtroom dignitary on his return, "th' jury wishes to thank you for your approbation, but the point they're arguing is one of penochls for $5 a side,"—American Legion Weekly.

When Hamer Nods.
The Highbrow—So you're a poet? An honorable and ancient art. Even before the days of printing the poets used to read their works aloud in public places.

The Popular Lyric Writer—That's the way it should be now. Then a guy could read the long lines fast and slow up on the short ones and so make 'em come out about even.

The Aid of Science.
Mrs. Faraway—Don't you consider the wireless telegraph the most wonderful invention of the age?
Mr. Theopis, the Theatrical Manager—No'm; the telephone. By havin' one of the characters tell the plot into a receiver we save the salary of a man to play a family servant.

THE OTHER MAN'S GAME
Madam Zizzi: What, you broke? I thought you was makin' all kinds of money at the clairvoyant game.
Professor Zoom: I was, but I lost it all in stocks.

The Paragon.
No man is perfect—though sometimes there's one, in wife's view—
The man she could have married if she hadn't married you.

More Satisfactory.
"You say you are having your revenge on the man who treated you so shabbily. What did you do to him?"
"Nothing. But his son has been given a French horn, his daughter is taking singing lessons and his baby has a bad attack of colic."

Mushroom Aristocracy.
"The overall clubs seem to be going out of style."
"Oh, yes. Nobody wears overalls now but the lower classes. The best people belong to the Darn and Patch clubs and wear their old clothes."

Has Qualifications.
Hokus—Why do you compare Hard-uppe with a busy bee? He isn't particularly industrious, is he?
Pokus—Oh, no; it isn't that. But nearly every one he touches gets stung.—London Tit-Bits.

In the Thick of It.
"That girl is very anxious to get in the whirl."
"Then tell her to come down to any big office and come in by the revolving door when a bunch of messenger boys are going through."

Explained.
"Do you see the man yonder? Well, to my certain knowledge he is leading a double life."
"You don't say so!"
"Yes; he is a professional confectionist."
